

Y OUT OF TOWN

A black and white photograph of a large group of people, mostly women in long dresses, gathered in a grassy field. Some are standing, some are sitting on the ground, and some are holding umbrellas. The background shows a line of trees under a bright sky. The photograph is framed by a double-line border.

Rompeian flower dance by society girls at fete champetre
Watch Hill.

GAYETY AT HIGH TIDE IN WHITE MOUNTAINS

Tennis tournament at Grand Forks in the U.S.A. (M. 1904)

GAY SOCIAL AFFAIRS NARRAGANSETT GAY SOUTHAMPTON BUSY
IN THE BERKSHIRES DESPITE END OF POLO DINING AND DANCING
 All Kinds of Entertainments Given
 by Members of the Summer Colony.

GAY SOCIAL AFFAIRS NARRAGANSETT GAY SOUTHAMPTON BUSY
IN THE BERKSHIRES DESPITE END OF POLO DINING AND DANCING
 All Kinds of Entertainments Given
 by Members of the Summer Colony.

Brilliant Coming Out Ball, Reception and Many Diners Fill Week.

LENOX, Mass., Aug. 22.—One very brilliant ball, a reception given by Mrs. John H. Hunt, the mistress of the Lenox Garden Council with Miss Charlotte Barnes, a long list of luncheons and several large dinners was the society programme in the Berkshires this week.

Mr. and Mrs. John H. C. Church gave the ball at West Haverhill, introducing into society their daughter, Miss Ruth

NARRAGANSETT PIER, Aug. 22.—Although the Narragansett polo season came to a close last Saturday the customary gayety of the summer season continues. Many polo enthusiasts have retained their cottages here and have returned over to Newport for the afternoon, where the same teams that previously played at the Pier have been engaging in matches under auspices of the Westchester Polo Club.

Among those who followed the polo at Newport during the week were: Philip P. Randolph, Miss Hannah Randolph, George Odette Tatten, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. John W. Converse, Mr. and Mrs. John R. Fell, Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Brown, Mr. and Mrs. William Hazard, Mr. and Mrs. William Lattaue, H. Leroy Whitney, Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin G. Gattins.

Annual Tennis Tournament Causes Much Entertaining—Costume Ball Big Success.

SOUTHAMPTON, N. Y., Aug. 22.—An unusual amount of gayety in the form of dances and dinner parties has occupied the members of the cottage colony during the past week. The reason for all the functions is the annual invitation tennis tournament held at the Meadow Club. The playing began on Monday afternoon

Brilliant Coming Out Ball, Reception and Many Dinners Fill Week.

LENOX, Mass., Aug. 22.—One very brilliant ball, reception given by Mrs. Joseph H. Choate, the meeting of the Lenox Garden Council with Miss Charlotte Barnes, a long list of luncheons and several large dinners was the society program in the Berkshires this week.

Mr. and Mrs. John H. C. Church gave the ball at Great Barrington, introducing into society their daughter, Miss Ruth Church, the setting for Miss Church's coming out. The ball at Great Barrington has been and consisted of elaborate decorations of orchids, roses, sweet peas and gladioli before a bank of early chrysanthemums.

Mrs. Church received with their debutante daughter, Mrs. Church wore a gown of pink satin adorned with silver lace, Miss Church was in white silk with garniture of real lace. A large house party for the function included Miss Margaret Hayes of Jackson, Mich.; Miss

NARRAGANSETT PIER, Aug. 22.—Although the Narragansett polo season came to a close last Saturday the customary gayety of the summer season continues. Many polo enthusiasts have retained their cottages here and have motored over to Newport for the afternoon, where the same teams that previously played at the Pier have been engaging in matches under auspices of the Westchester Polo Club.

Among those who followed the polo at Newport during the week were Philip P. Randolph, Miss Hannah Randolph, George Oakley Totten, Jr. Mr. and Mrs. John W. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Fell, Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Brown, Mr. and Mrs. William Hazard, Mr. and Mrs. William Littauer, H. Leroy Whitney, Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin G. Gans.

One of the most interesting affairs of the week here was the open air pageant and folk festival given on Thursday by a trained chorus of Indian and negro singers, who sang "Va. Va. Va." The Indian ceremonial dances, plantation melodies, folk songs and a pageant representing "Gifts to the Nation" were among the features of the entertainment held on the lawns of the Point Judith Country Club.

Among the patronesses were many women prominent among the summer residents of Narragansett.

Annual Tennis Tournament Causes Much Entertaining Costume Ball Big Success.

SOUTHAMPTON, N. Y., Aug. 22.—An unusual amount of gayety in the form of dances and dinner parties has occupied the members of the cottage colony during the past week. The reason for all the functions is the annual invitation tennis tournament held at the Meadow Club. The playing began on Monday afternoon with seventy-four entries, and ended with the finals this morning. The weather during the week was favorable for the players and the crowds of visitors who were here. Nearly every one in the cottage colony is entertaining and the clubs and hotels have been taxed to their capacity.

The Meadow Club has been the scene of unusual activity this week, for besides the tennis the ladies of the Brilliant Coming Out Ball, Reception and Many Dinners Fill Week.

LENOX, Mass., Aug. 22.—One very brilliant ball, a reception given by Mrs. Joseph H. Choate, the meeting of the Lenox Garden Council with Miss Charlotte Barnes, a long list of luncheons and several large dinners was the society program in the Berkshires this week.

Mr. and Mrs. John H. C. Church gave the ball at Great Barrington, introducing into society their daughter, Miss Ruth Church. The setting for Miss Church's coming out was the handsomest that Great Barrington has seen and consisted of elaborate decorations of orchids, roses, sweet peas and gladioli before a bank of early chrysanthemums.

Mr. and Mrs. Church received with their daughter at Lenox. Mrs. Church wore a gown of pink satin adorned with silver lace. Miss Church was in white silk with garniture of real lace. A large house party for the function included Miss Margaret Hayes of Jackson, Mich.; Miss Elinor Scott, Pittsburg; Miss Mabel Owen and Miss Cornelia Woolley of New York; Kirby Green of Greenwich, Conn., and Francis H. Brown of Honolulu.

Mr. and Mrs. Brynne Wickes of Tuxedo arrived on the Lacota from New York and came up to Lenox, where their daughters are passing the summer with Mrs. Wickes' mother, Mrs. George Griswold Haven. After a few weeks in Lenox Mr. and Mrs. Wickes will return to their European trip was out short by their mobilization in France.

Mrs. Choate's afternoon reception was given for Mrs. Thomas F. Bayard of Washington, D. C., and Mrs. George Merrill of the Bedford Springs.

NARRAGANSETT PIER, AUG. 22.—Although the Narragansett polo season came to a close last Saturday the customary gayety of the summer season continues. Many polo enthusiasts have retained their cottages here and have made them over to Newport for the afternoon, where the same teams that previously played at the Pier have been engaging in matches under auspices of the Westchester Polo Club.

Among those who followed the polo at Newport during the week were Philip S. P. Randolph, Miss Hannah Randolph, George Oakley Totten, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. John S. Condit, Mr. and Mrs. John R. Fell, Mrs. and Mr. Alexander Brown, Mr. and Mrs. William Hazard, Mr. and Mrs. William Littauer, H. Leroy Whitney, Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin G. Gating.

Among the musical offerings of the week here was the open air pageant and folk festival given on Thursday by a trained chorus of Indian and negro singers from the Hampton, Va., Institute. Indian songs, including the "Hallelujah" melodies, folk songs and a pageant representing "Gifts to the Nation" were among the features of the entertainment held on the lawns of the Point Judith Country Club.

Among the patronesses were many women prominent among the summer colonies of Narragansett Pier, Newport and Watch Hill, including Mrs. Charles Hitchcock of Chicago, Mrs. C. C. Rowland Hazard, Mrs. Otto L. Mersman, Mrs. Franklin W. Moulton, Mrs. Joseph Samuels, Mrs. Samuel H. Valentine, Mrs. John C. Brown, Mrs. George Brown, Rosita M. Rhodes, Mrs. Saunders Jones, Mrs. John C. Norrie, Mrs. Kenneth Murchison, Mrs. Philip M. Prescott, Mrs. Edward W. Robinson, Mrs. David S. Baker, Mrs. J. C. Condit, Mrs. J. C. Condit, Mrs. J. C. Condit, Mrs. Fisher Corlies, Mrs. S. P. Connor, Mrs. Henry Brevoort Kane, Mrs. Francis H. Dewey, Mrs. John W. Converse and Mrs. A. J. Conroy.

Sherry's Casino last night, it being "A

Annual Tennis Tournament Causes Much Entertaining. Costume Ball Big Success.

SOUTHAMPTON, N. Y., Aug. 22.—An unusual amount of gayety in the form of dances and dinner parties has occupied the members of the cottage colony during the past week. The reason for all the functions is the annual invitation tennis tournament held at the Meadow Club. The playing began on Monday afternoon with seventy-four entries, and ended with the finals this morning. The weather during the week was favorable for the players and the crowds of visitors who were here. Nearly every one in the cottage colony is entertaining and the clubs and hotels have been taken to their capacity.

The Meadow Club has been the scene of unusual activity this week, for besides the tennis, the ladies of the hospital auxiliary were busy preparing for the annual costume ball for the benefit of the Southampton Hospital given on Thursday night, which proved to be one of the largest and most successful affairs of the season. Dancing was a huge marquee erected on the tennis grounds to the rear of the clubhouse and adjoining the grounds. The marquee was connected with the clubhouse by a covered passageway. Many beautiful and costly costumes were worn and there was a fashionable audience in the boxes. The ball was opened by a Pierrot and Pierresette dance arranged by Miss Juliana Cutting. A substantial sum of money was raised

Brilliant Coming Out Ball, Reception and Many Dinners Fill Week.

LENOX, Mass., Aug. 22.—One very brilliant ball, a reception given by Mrs. Joseph H. Choate, the meeting of the Lenox Garden Council with Miss Charlotte Barnes, a long list of luncheons and several large dinners was the society programme in the Berkshire this week.

Mr. and Mrs. John H. C. Church gave the ball at Great Barrington, introducing into society their daughter, Miss Ruth Church, who is settling for Miss Church's coming out at Lenox.

Great Barrington has seen and consisted of elaborate decorations of orchids, roses, sweet peas and gladioli before a bank of early chrysanthemums.

Mrs. A. Church received with their debutante daughter, Mrs. Church wore a gown of pink satin adorned with silver lace, Miss Church was in white silk with garniture of real lace. A large house party for the week included Miss Margaret Hayes of Jackson, Mich.; Miss Ellnor Scott, Pittsburg; Miss Mabel Overton and Miss Cornelia Wooley of New York; Kirby Green of Greenwich, Conn.; Mrs. Frank J. Smith of New York; and Mrs. and Mrs. Forsythe Wickes of Tuxedo arrived on the Laconia this week and came up to Lenox, where their daughters are passing the summer with Mrs. W. H. Wickes at the Lenox Highlands and Haven. After a few weeks in Lenox, Mr. and Mrs. Wickes will go to Tuxedo. Their European trip was cut short by the mobilization in France.

A splendid afternoon reception was given for Mrs. Thomas F. Bayard of Washington, who was a guest of Mrs. George Merrill at the Red Lion Inn. Mrs. Bayard later in the week went to Newport and will be here on August 29.

For several days Mrs. Choate was unable to make his daily automobile trip about the hills, but has now recovered from his indisposition.

The prizes of a drawing may be September 1. The leading dancers will be the Lenox Club, September 4; Miss French's fancy dress ball at Chesterwood, September 5; the fancy dress ball for the benefit of the Lenox Club at Polsem's Mountain View Farm at Hotel de Ville, September 26, and the opening dance at the new club house in mid-September. The date of the Dog Show has been changed to September 15.

Mrs. Newbury, who is giving a

NARRAGANSETT PIER, AUG. 22.—Although the Narragansett polo season came to a close last Saturday the customary gaiety of the summer season continues. Many polo enthusiasts have retained their cottages here and have numerous other parties. Newport for the afternoon, where the same teams that previously played at the Pier have been engaging in matches under auspices of the Westchester Polo Club.

Among those who followed the polo at Newport during the week were Philip S. P. Randolph, Miss Hannah Randolph, George Oakley Totten, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. John W. Totten, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Fell, Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Brown, Mr. and Mrs. William Hazard, Mr. and Mrs. William Littauer, H. Leroy Whitney, Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin J. Goring.

One of the most interesting affairs of the week here was the open air pageant and folk festival given on Thursday by a trained chorus of Indian and negro dancers from the State of Virginia. Indian ceremonial dances, plantation melodies, folk songs and a pageant representing "Gifts to the Nation" were among the features of the entertainment held on the lawns of the Point Judith Country Club.

Among the patronesses were many women prominent among the summer colonies of the Narragansett Pier and Watch Hill, including Mrs. Charles Hitchcock, Mrs. Irving H. Chase, Mrs. Rowland Hazard, Mrs. Otto L. Merzman, Mrs. Franklin W. Moulton, Mrs. Joseph S. Sargent, Mrs. Samuel A. Vail, Mrs. J. P. Almy, Mrs. Granville Brown, Miss Rosita M. Rhodes, Mrs. Saunders P. Jones, Mrs. John C. Norris, Mrs. Kenneth Murchison, Mrs. H. M. Prescott, Mrs. Edward W. Robinson, Mrs. David L. Brown, Mrs. Jerome N. Bonaparte, Mrs. J. D. Chapman, Mrs. Elmer Corlies, Mrs. P. S. P. Connor, Mrs. Henry Brevoort Kana, Mrs. F. W. French, Mrs. John W. Converse and Mrs. A. J. Conroy.

A special entertainment was given in Sherry's Casino last night, it being "A Night in Montmartre."

A special entertainment was given on Thursday evening in the Mathewson Hotel for the benefit of the Baptist Church. Edwin Corbet of New York lectured on "The Moral Basis of Socialism."

Mrs. Frederick Hazard entertained at dinner Wednesday at her estate, Westmoreland Farms, prior to the regular hop at the Casino.

Edward L. Welsh of Philadelphia gave a large dance this evening at the new pavilion of the Scarborough Beach Club. The pavilion has just been opened and dancing will place there every afternoon, on regular nights and hops given by members of the club.

Irving M. Chase, who for many years

Annual Tennis Tournament Causes Much Entertaining—Costume Ball Big Success.

SOUTHAMPTON, N. Y., Aug. 22.—An unusual amount of gaiety in the form of dances and dinner parties has occupied the members of the cottage colony during the past week. The reason for all the functions is the annual invitation tennis tournament held at the Meadow Club. The playing began on Monday afternoon with seventy-four entries, and ended with the finals this morning. The weather during the week was favorable for the players and the crowds of visitors who were here. Nearly every one in the cottage colony is entertaining and the clubs and hotels have been taxed to their capacity.

The Meadow Club has been the scene of unusual activity this week, for besides the tennis, the ladies of the hospital auxiliary were busy preparing for the annual costume ball for the benefit of the Southampton Hospital given on Thursday night, which proved to be one of the largest and most successful affairs of the season. Dancing was in a huge marquee erected on the tennis courts to the rear of the clubhouse and adjoining the gardens. The marquee was connected with the clubhouse by a covered passageway. Many beautiful and costly costumes were worn and there was a fashionable audience in the boxes. The ball was opened by a Pierrot and Pierrette arranged by Miss Juliana Cutting. A substantial sum of money was raised for the hospital.

On Tuesday afternoon, while the tennis playing was in progress, a tea dance was given in the ballroom of the club. Exhibition dancing by Miss Margaret Hawker and Raoul Durant was the main feature. There was also competitive dancing among the members of the junior set for silver cups offered by Mrs. William Lowe Rice and Mrs. Henry G. Trevor.

During the week, among the largest and most successful was the costume ball, which was the one given by Dr. and Mrs. P. F. Chambers on Monday night for the daughter, Miss Alice Chambers. A notable feature of the evening's entertainment was the moving pictures given on the lawn. On Tuesday night Hudson Budd gave Bright Coming Out Ball, Reception and Many Dinners Fill Week.

LENOX, Mass., Aug. 22.—One very brilliant ball, a reception given by Mrs. Joseph H. Choate, the meeting of the Lenox Garden Council with Miss Charlotte Barnes, a long list of luncheons and several delightful parties are the society programme in the Berkshires this week.

Mr. and Mrs. John H. C. Church gave the ball at Great Barrington, introducing into society their daughter, Miss Ruth Church. The invitation was also being coming out was the handsomest that Great Barrington has seen and consisted of elaborate decorations of orchids, roses, wisteria and gladioli before a bank of early chrysanthemums.

Mr. and Mrs. Church received with their debutante daughter. Mrs. Church wore a gown of pink satin adorned with silver lace. Mrs. Church was in white silk with garniture of real lace. A large house party for the function included Miss Margaret Hayes of Jackson, Mich.; Miss Elmer Scott, Pittsburg; Miss Mabel Overton of New York City; Miss Mary Kirby Green of Greenwich, Conn. and Francis H. Brown of Honolulu.

Mr. and Mrs. Forsyth Wickes of Tuxedo arrived on the Locomotion this week and will remain here until September 1st. Their daughters are passing the summer with Mr. Wickes' mother, Mrs. George Griswold Haven. After a few weeks in Lenox Mr. Wickes' family will go to Tuxedo, their European trip cut short by the mobilization in France.

Mrs. Choate's afternoon reception was given for Mrs. Thomas F. Bayard of Washington, who was a guest of Mrs. George Merrill at the Red House. Mrs. Bayard lived in the week went to Newport to pass the remainder of August. For several days Mr. Choate was unable to leave his daily automobile trip about the hills, but has now recovered from his indisposition.

There is promise of a very gay September. The leading dances will be by the Lenox Country Club on Wednesday, French's fancy dress ball at Chesterwood, September 5; the fancy dress ball for the benefit of Miss Ethelred Pospisil's Mountain View Farm at Hotel Ashmole, September 6; the fancy dress ball at the new club house in mid-September. The date of the Dog Show has been changed to Tuesday, September 15.

Mrs. Newbold Morris has again $100 in prize money for the Lenox Dog Association special prizes. Others who have given money prizes are Mrs. John E. Alexandre, Mrs. Edwards Spencer, A. A. Hunnerford, Mrs. C. Davies Tainter, Mrs. Robert Ford, Miss N. D. Winter, Mrs. Alice Hager, Frederic S. Delaford, Greenville L. Winthrop and Giraud Foster. Gifts have been offered by Henry Holman, W. W. Williams, Jr., J. B. Brown, Mrs. Edwards Spencer, for the best West Highland White terrier owned in the Berkshires; Drew S. Timman,

NARRAGANSETT PIER, AUG. 22.—Although the Narragansett polo season came to a close last Saturday the customary gaiety of the summer season continues. Many polo enthusiasts have returned their cottages here and have motored over to Newport for the afternoon, where the same teams that previously played at the Pier have been engaging in matches under auspices of the Watchtower Polo Club.

Among those who followed the polo at Newport during the week were Philip S. Randolph, Miss Hannah Randolph, George Oakley Tetser, Jr. and Mr. and Mrs. John V. Converse, Mr. and Mrs. John R. Fell, Mr. and Alexander Brown, Mr. and Mrs. William Hazard, Mr. and Mrs. William H. H. Whitney, Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin G. Latins.

One of the most interesting affairs of the week here was the open air pageant and folk festival given on Thursday by the Narragansett Indian Club. The singers from the Hampton, Va., Institute, Indian ceremonial dances, plantation melodies, folk songs and a pageant representing the life of Narragansett were among the features of the entertainment held on the lawns of the Point Judith Country Club.

Among the patronesses were many well known names among the summer colonies of Narragansett Pier, Newport and Watch Hill, including Mrs. Charles Hitchcock, Mrs. Irving H. Chase, Mrs. Rowland Hazard, Mrs. Otis L. Merz, Mrs. Franklin W. Moulton, Mrs. Joseph Samuels, Mrs. Samuel H. Valentine, Mrs. J. P. Almy, Mrs. Grenville Brown, Miss Elizabeth Rhodes, Mrs. Saunders P. Jones, Mrs. John Horton, Mrs. General McMillan, Mrs. Philip M. Prescott, Mrs. Edward W. Robinson, Mrs. David S. Baker, Mrs. Jerome N. Bonaparte, Mrs. J. D. Chapman, Mrs. J. B. Brown, Mrs. J. B. Connor, Mrs. Henry Brevoort Kane, Mrs. Francis H. Dewey, Mrs. John W. Converse and Mrs. A. J. Conroy.

A special feature of the night was given in the Casino last night, it being "A Night in Montmartre."

An entertainment was given on Thursday evening in the Mathewson Hotel for the benefit of the Rapid Relief Society win Corbet of New York located on "The Man Who Laughs."

Mrs. Frederick Hazard entertained at dinner on Wednesday at her estate on Westmoreland Fields, prior to the regular hop at the Casino.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward L. Welsh of Philadelphia gave the latest dance this evening at the new pavilion of the South Beach Club. The pavilion has been completely and dancing takes place there every afternoon, with regular week end hops.

Irving M. Chase, who for many years has owned a cottage on Ocean road, and the Misses Marjorie and Eleanor Chase, sail tomorrow for Cape Cod, where they are expected to arrive to join Mrs. Chase at Miramar next week.

MAINTENANCE FOR CAPE

MAY'S HORSE SHOW

Arrangements Completed for Next Saturday's Exhibition—Many

Annual Tennis Tournament Causes Much Excitement

Costume Ball Big Success.

SOUTHAMPTON, N. Y., Aug. 22.—An unusual amount of gaiety in the form of dances and dinner parties has occupied the members of the cottage colony during the past week. The reason for all the functions is the annual invitation tennis tournament held at the Meadow Club. The playing began on Monday afternoon with twelve entries, and ended with the finals this morning. The weather during the week was favorable for players and the crowds of visitors who were here. Nearly every one in the cottage colony is entertaining and the clubs and hotels have been taxed to their capacity.

The Meadow Club has been the scene of unusual activity this week, for besides the tennis, the ladies of the hospital auxiliary were busy preparing for the annual costume ball for the benefit of the Southampton Hospital given on Thursday night, which proved to be one of the largest and most successful affairs of the season. Dancing was a huge marquee erected on the tennis courts to the rear of the clubhouse adjoining the gardens. The marquee was decorated with flowers and lights and a passageway. Many beautiful and costly costumes were worn and there was a fashionable audience in the boxes. The hall was opened by a Terrot and Pierret dance arranged by Miss Juliana Cutting. A substantial sum of money was raised for the hospital fund.

On Tuesday afternoon, while the tennis play was in progress, tea dance was given in the ballroom of the club. Exhibition dancing by Miss Margaret Hawke and Basil Durant was one of the features. There was also competition in dancing among the members of the junior set for silver cups offered by Mrs. William Lowe Rice and Mrs. Henry G. Trevor.

Several juvenile parties were also given during the week, among the largest was given by the Junior set of the Junior P. F. Chambers on Monday night for their daughter, Miss Alice Chambers. A novelty of the evening's entertainment was the moving pictures given in the lawn. On Tuesday night Hudson Budd gave a dance to about forty of the young folk at the cottage of Mr. and Mrs. H. Budd on South Main street. On Friday night, Mrs. Henry H. Rogers and Mr. Budd at Hopeland, her summer cottage. More than 100 enjoyed a very elaborate entertainment arranged by Mrs. Rogers in the production of the film play "Cabrera." The play was accompanied by a full orchestra and chorus, and after the entertainment there was dancing, which was followed by a supper.

Brilliant Coming Out Ball, Reception and Many Dinners Fill Week.

LENOX, Mass., Aug. 22.—One very brilliant ball, a reception given by Mrs. Joseph H. Choate, the meeting of the Lenox Garden Council with Miss Charlotte Barnes, a long list of luncheons and several large dinners was the society program in the Berkshire town week.

Mr. and Mrs. John H. Church gave the ball at Great Barrington, introducing into society their daughter, Miss Ruth Church. The setting for Miss Church's coming out was the handsomest that Great Barrington has seen and consisted of elaborate decorations of orchids, roses, sweet peas and gladioli before a bank of early chrysanthemums.

Mr. and Mrs. Church received with their eleven daughters. Mrs. Church wore a gown of pink satin adorned with silver lace. Miss Church was in white silk with garniture of real lace. A large house party for the function included Miss Margaret Hayes of Jackson, Mich.; Miss Ellnor Scott, Pittsburg; Miss Abigail Overton and Miss Cornelia Woolley of New York; Kirby Green of Greenwich, Conn., and Francis H. Brown of Honolulu.

Mrs. Mary Brynne Wickes of Tuxedo arrived on the train last night and came up to Lenox, where their daughters are passing the summer with Mrs. Wickes' mother, Mrs. George Griswold Haven. After a few weeks in Lenox Mr. and Mrs. Wickes will return to their European trip was cut short by the mobilization in France.

Mrs. Choate's afternoon reception was given for Mrs. Thomas F. Bayard of Washington, D. C., guest of Mrs. George Merrill at the Red Lion Inn. Mrs. Bayard later in the week went to Newport to pass the remainder of August. For several days Mr. Choate was unable to leave his home on a daily automobile trip about the hills, but has now recovered from his indisposition.

There is promise of a very gay September. The leading dances will be by the Lenox Club, September 4; Miss French's, September 6; the Lenox Club, September 5; the fancy dress ball for the benefit of Miss Ethelred Polson's Mountain View Farm at Hotel Aspinwall, September 26, and the opening dance at the Lenox Club on mid-September. The date of the Dog Show has been changed to Tuesday, September 18.

Mrs. Newbold Morris has given $100 in gold to the Lenox Dog Association for special prizes. The dogs who have been given money prizes are Mrs. John B. Alexander, Mrs. Edwards Spencer, Mrs. A. Hunnerford, Mrs. C. Davies Talbot, Mrs. Robert Winthrop, Miss M. R. Winters, Mrs. Alice Hagler, Mrs. J. B. Field, Generalville L. Winthrop and Giraud Foster. Cups have been offered by Henry Holmfield Pease, William D. Curtis, W. W. Brown, Mrs. Edwards Spencer for the number of High Jump trials terrier owned in the Berkshire District.

J. B. Cooper, Mrs. M. McCurdy, Miss E. G. Hydon, Mrs. C. Halsted Yates, Benjamin H. Throop, Thomas F. Ryan, J. Montague Scott, Richard Stewart, H. T. Peters, Miss Anna Sander, Mrs. Ogden Mills and Miss Amy K. Eaton.

Tennis at Hotel Aspinwall this week attracted many prominent players. The rapid progress of the season during the part of the week both morning and afternoon matches were played. The cups were the handsomest that have been offered in the hills this year. Other active tennis players in the district are S. Devier, Mrs. N. A. Driggs, Miss Lillian Latour, Frederick and Richard Holloman, A. N. Voorhis, Dr. B. Sherwood Dunn and W. A. Cowles won the weekly prizes for August.

Among the guests at Curtis Hotel are Dr. and Mrs. P. H. Dudley, Mr. and Mrs. George L. Williams, Mr. and Mrs. William B. Barlow, Mrs. S. S. Devier, Mrs. N. A. Driggs, Miss Lillian Latour, Frederick and Richard Holloman, A. N. Voorhis, Dr. B. Sherwood Dunn and W. A. Cowles won the weekly prizes for August.

NARRAGANSETT PIER, AUG. 22.—Although the Narragansett polo season came to a close last Saturday the customary gaiety of the summer season continues. Many polo enthusiasts have retained their cottages here and have returned to Newport for the afternoon, where the same teams that previously played at the Pier have been engaging in matches under auspices of the Westchester Polo Club.

Among those who followed the polo at Newport during the week were Philip S. P. Randolph, Miss Hannah Randolph, George Oakley Tetten, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. John B. Conover, Mrs. John R. Fell, Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Brown, Mr. and Mrs. William Hazard, Mr. and Mrs. William Littauer, H. Leroy Whitney, Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin G. Gatins.

The social and sporting affairs of the week here was the open air pageant and folk festival given on Thursday by a trained chorus of Indian and negro singers from the Hampton, Va., Institute. Included in the program were songs, melodies, folk songs and a pageant representing "Gifts to the Nation" were among the features of the entertainment held on the lawns of the Point Judith Country Club.

Among the patronesses were many women prominent among the summer colonies at Narragansett Pier, Newport and Watch Hill, including Mrs. Charles Hitchcock, Mrs. Evelyn H. Chadwick, Rowland Hazard, Mrs. Otto L. Merzman, Mrs. Franklin W. Moulton, Mrs. Joseph Samuels, Mrs. Samuel H. Valentine, Mrs. J. P. Almy, Mrs. Grenville Wilson, Mrs. Rosita M. Rhodes, Mrs. Saunders Jones, Mrs. John C. Norris, Mrs. Kenneth Murchison, Mrs. Philip M. Prescott, Mrs. Edward W. Robinson, Mrs. David S. Baker, Mrs. Jerome N. Brown, Mrs. D. Chapman, Mrs. Fisher Corlies, Mrs. P. S. Connor, Mrs. Henry Brevoort Kane, Mrs. Francis H. Dewey, Mrs. John W. Converse and Mrs. A. J. Conroy.

A party which followed the polo was given in Sherry's Casino last night. It being "A Night in Montmartre."

An entertainment was given on Thursday evening in the Mathewson Hotel for the benefit of the Soldiers' Home, which won Corbet of New York lectured on "The Man Who Laughs."

Mrs. Frederick Hazard entertained at dinner Wednesday at her estate, Westmoreland Place, prior to the regular hop at the Casino.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward L. Welsh of Philadelphia gave a large dance this evening at the Casino, the affair being given at Beach Club. The pavilion has just been completed and dancing takes place there every afternoon, with regular week end hops given by members of the club.

Mrs. John C. Rogers, who has resided here for nearly twenty years has owned a cottage on Ocean road, and the Misses Marjorie and Eleanor Chase, sailed last Saturday from Southampton and are expected to arrive to join Mrs. Chase at Miramar next week.

MANY ENTRIES FOR CAPE MAY'S HORSE SHOW

Arrangements Completed for Next Saturday's Exhibition—Many Cups Donated.

CAPE MAY, N. J., Aug. 22.—Judge Ben B. Lindsay of Denver was the speaker tonight at the Cape May Horse Show. My Chautauque, which has been held every afternoon and evening during the week. Judge Lindsay's subject was "The Making of a Micky."

Arrangements practically completed for the horse show to be held next Saturday. A large number of blooded stock from Philadelphia, Baltimore, New York and Newport will be exhibited and a number of prize horses have been donated by prominent lovers of horse flesh throughout the East, from Canada and from England.

T. Coleman du Pont of New York and Wilmington will direct the drivers to win the hydroplane races in the eighteen mile course last Saturday afternoon by forty-three hundredths of a second. Col. du Pont has his steam yacht Tech, Jr., in the water and will sail to the pier in the events of the Corinthian Yacht Club.

Eleven persons of the Corinthian

SHELTER ISLAND.

SHELTER ISLAND, N. Y., Aug. 22.—The Shelter Island Tennis Tournament, the resort and the season gives promise of ending in a burst of brilliancy.

The children still hold the centre of the stage. Yesterday afternoon they began the career of the day in the ballroom of the Prospect House, the principal feature of which was a modern dancing contest for prizes donated by James Ebbels the manager. Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Hutcheon for the first time. Mr. and Mrs. Sage Brooklyn acted as judges.

One of the big features of the past week was the benefit concert for United Chapel held in the ballroom of the Prospect House under the direction of Theodore Austin. An exceptionally good programme was provided by the rewertera.

Recent arrivals at the Prospect House are:

From New York—Henry Pasteman, R. Duane, Miss S. C. Case, Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Macy, J. L. Williams, Mr. and Mrs. R. N. Porter, T. C. Sullivan and Miss Claire Herrick.

From El Paso—Mrs. Florence

On Tuesday afternoon, while the tennis play was in progress, the dance was given in the ballroom of the hotel. Exhibition dancing by Miss Margaret Hawke, worth and Basil Durant was one of the features. There was also competitive dancing among the members of the Junior set for five cups offered by Mrs. William Lowe Rice and Mrs. Henry G. Trevor.

Several juvenile parties were also given during the week, among the largest of which was the one given by Dr. and Mrs. P. F. Chambers on Monday night for their daughter, Miss Alice Chambers. A no novelty of the evening's entertainment was the moving pictures given on the lawn on Tuesday night. Hudson Budd gave orders to shoot away the laborer and the crowd at the cottage of Mr. and Mrs. H. Budd on South Main street. On Friday night Mrs. Henry H. Rogers entertained at Hopeland, her summer cottage. Moving pictures and other amusements and entertainment arranged by Mrs. Rogers in production of the film play "Cabrila." The play was accompanied with a large orchestra and chorus, and after the evening session of dancing, which was followed by a supper.

Recent arrivals at the Prospect House are:

From New York—Henry Pasteman, R. Duane, Miss S. C. Case, Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Macy, J. L. Williams, Mr. and Mrs. R. N. Porter, T. C. Sullivan and Miss Claire Herrick.

From El Paso—Mrs. Florence

NARRAGANSETT GAY
DESPITE END OF POLO

All Kinds of Entertainments Given by Members of the Summer School

NARRAGANSETT GAY
DESPITE END OF POLO

All Kinds of Entertainments Given
by Members of the Summer Colony.
NARRAGANSETT PIER, Aug. 22.—Although

NARRAGANSETT GAY DESPITE END OF POLO

All Kinds of Entertainments Given by Members of the Summer Colony.

NARRAGANSETT PIER, Aug. 22.—Although the Narragansett polo season came to a close last Saturday the customary gayety of the summer season continues. Many polo enthusiasts have retained their cottages here and have motored over to

NARRAGANSETT GAY
DESPITE END OF POLO

All Kinds of Entertainments Given
by Members of the Summer Colony.

NARRAGANSETT PIER, Aug. 22.—Although the Narragansett polo season came to a close last Saturday the customary gayety of the summer season continues. Many polo enthusiasts have retained their cottages here and have motored over to Newport for the afternoon, where the same teams that previously played at the Pier have been engaging in matches under auspices of the Westchester Polo Club.

Among those who followed the polo at Newport during the week were Philip S. Randolph, Miss Hannah Randolph, George Oulivet Tatten, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. John W. Converse, Mr. and Mrs. John

NARRAGANSETT GAY DESPITE END OF POLO

All Kinds of Entertainments Given by Members of the Summer Colony.

NARRAGANSETT PIER, Aug. 22.—Although the Narragansett polo season came to a close last Saturday the customary gaiety of the summer season continues. Many polo enthusiasts have retained their cottages here and have motored over to Newport for the polo matches, where the same teams that previously played at the Pier have been engaging in matches under auspices of the Westchester Polo Club.

Among those who followed the polo at Newport during the week were Philip S. P. Randolph, Miss Hannah Randolph, George Oakley Totten, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. John H. Converse, Mr. and Mrs. John H. Fell, Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Brown, Mr. and Mrs. William Hazard, Mr. and Mrs. William Littauer, H. Leroy Whitney, Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin G. Gatins.

One of the most interesting affairs of the week here was the open air pageant and folk festival given on Thursday by a trained chorus of Indian and negro singers from the Hampton, Va., Institute.

NARRAGANSETT GAY
DESPITE END OF POLO

All Kinds of Entertainments Given by Members of the Summer Colony.

NARRAGANSETT PIER, Aug. 21.—Although the Narragansett polo season came to a close last Saturday the customary gaiety of the summer season continues. Many polo enthusiasts have retained their cottages here and have motored over to Newport for the afternoon, where the same teams of the previous polo season and Pier have been engaging in matches under auspices of the Westchester Polo Club.

Among those who followed the polo at Newport during the afternoon were: S. P. Randolph, Miss Hannah Randolph, George Oakley Tetten, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. John W. Converse, Mr. and Mrs. John H. Bell, Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Brown, Mr. and Mrs. William Hazard, Mr. and Mrs. William Littauer, H. Leroy Whitney, Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin G. Gattins.

One of the most interesting affairs of the week here was the open air pageant and folk festival given on Thursday by a trained chorus of Indian and negro singers from the Hampton, Va., Institute. The colonial songs, dances, plantation melodies, folk songs and songs representing "Gifts to the Nation," were among the features of the entertainment held on the lawns of the Point Judith Country Club.

Among the patronesses were many women prominent among the summer colonies of Narragansett Pier, Newport and the Hill, including Mrs. Charles Hitchcock, Mrs. Chase, Mrs. Rowland Hazard, Mrs. Otto L. Merzman, Mrs. Franklin W. Moulton, Mrs. Joseph Samuels, Mrs. Samuel H. Valentine, Mrs. John C. Norris, Mrs. John C. Norris, Mrs. Rosita M. Rhodes, Mrs. Saunders P. Jones, Mrs. John C. Norris, Mrs. Kenneth Murchison, Mrs. Philip M. Prescott, Mrs. Edward

NARRAGANSETT GAY
DESPITE END OF POLO

All Kinds of Entertainments Given by Members of the Summer Colony.

NARRAGANSETT PIER, Aug. 22.—Although the Narragansett polo season came to a close last Saturday the customary gayety of the summer season continues. Many polo enthusiasts have retained their cottages here and have motored over to Newport during the week, where the same teams that previously played at the Pier have been engaging in matches under auspices of the Westchester Polo Club.

Among those who followed the polo at Newport during the week were Randolph S. P. Randolph, Miss Hannah Randolph, George Oakley Totten, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. John W. Converse, Mr. and Mrs. John W. Hall, Mr. and Mrs. Alexander S. Chowen, Mr. and Mrs. William Hazard, Mr. and Mrs. William Littauer, H. Leroy Whitney, Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin G. Gatins.

One of the most interesting affairs of the week here was the open air pageant and folk festival given on Thursday by a trained chorus of Indian and negro songsters from the Hampton, Va., institution. Indian, cotton and Latin American melodies, folk songs and a pageant representing "Gifts to the Nation" were among the features of the entertainment. The show was given at the Point Judith Country Club.

Among the patronesses were many women prominent among the summer colonies of Narragansett Pier, Newport and Watch Hill, including Mrs. Charles Hitchcock, Mrs. Irving H. Chase, Mrs. Rowland Hazard, Mrs. Otto L. Merriam, Mrs. Franklin W. Moulton, Mrs. Joseph Samuels, Mrs. J. P. Almy, Mrs. Grenville Brown, Miss Rosita M. Rhodes, Mrs. Saunders P. Jones, Mrs. John C. Norris, Mrs. Kenneth Murchison, Mrs. Henry B. Kane, Mrs. Edward W. Robinson, Mrs. David S. Baker, Mrs. Jerome N. Bonaparte, Mrs. J. D. Chapman, Mrs. Fisher Corlies, Mrs. P. S. P. Francis, Mrs. Henry B. Kane, Mrs. Francis A. Dewey, Mrs. John W. Converse and Mrs. A. J. Conroy.

A special entertainment was given in Newport's Casino last night, it being "A Night at the Casino."

An entertainment was given on Thursday evening in the Mathewson Hotel for the benefit of the Baptist Church. Edw. W. L. Man Wo Laughs.

NARRAGANETT GAY
DESPITE END OF POLO

All Kinds of Entertainments Given by Members of the Summer Colony.

NARRAGANETT PIER, Aug. 22.—Although the Narragansett polo season came to a close last Saturday, the customary gaiety of the summer season continued, and many polo enthusiasts have retained their cottages here and have motored over to Newport for the afternoon, where the same teams that previously played at the pier have been engaging in matches under the auspices of the local polo club.

Among those who followed the polo at Newport during the week were Philip S. P. Randolph, Miss Hannah Randolph, George Oakley Totten, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. John W. Converse, Mr. and Mrs. John R. Fell, Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Brown, Mr. and Mrs. William Hazard, Mr. and Mrs. William Littauer, H. Leroy Whitney, Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin O. Gatins.

One of the most interesting affairs of the week here was the open air pageant and folk festival given on Thursday by a trained chorus of Indian and negro singers from the Hampton, Va., Institute. Indian songs, songs of the plantation melodies, folk songs and a pageant representing "Gifts to the Nation" were among the features of the entertainment held on the lawns of the Point Judith Country Club.

Among the patronesses were many women prominent among the summer colonies of Narragansett Pier, Newport and Watch Hill, including Mrs. Charles B. Wheeler, Mrs. James B. Jones, Mrs. Rowland Hazard, Mrs. Otto L. Merzmann, Mrs. Franklin W. Moulton, Mrs. Joseph Samuels, Mrs. Samuel H. Valentine, Mrs. J. C. Amy, Mrs. Grenville Brown, Miss R. H. Foster, Mrs. J. D. Jones, Mrs. John C. Norris, Mrs. Kenneth Murchison, Mrs. Philip M. Prescott, Mrs. Edward W. Robinson, Mrs. David S. Baker, Mrs. Jerome N. Bonaparte, Mrs. J. D. Chapman, Mrs. J. D. Converse, Mrs. J. C. Connor, Mrs. Henry Brevoort Kane, Mrs. Francis H. Dewey, Mrs. John W. Converse and Mrs. A. J. Conroy.

A special entertainment was given in the auditorium last night, it being "A Night in Montmartre."

An entertainment was given on Thursday evening in the Mathewson Hotel for the benefit of the Baptist Church. Edwin Converse of New York lectured on "The Man Who Laughs."

Mrs. Frederick Hazard entertained at dinner Wednesday at her estate, Westmoreland Fields, prior to the regular polo at the pier.

Mrs. and Mrs. Edward L. Welsh of Philadelphia gave a large dance this evening at the new pavilion of the Scarborough Beach Club. The pavilion has just been completed and the dancing will continue every afternoon, with regular week end hope given by members of the club.

Irving M. Chase, who for many years

NARRAGANSETT GAY
DESPITE END OF POLO

All Kinds of Entertainments Given by Members of the Summer Colony.

NARRAGANSETT PIER, Aug. 22.—Although the Narragansett polo season came to a close last Saturday the customary gaiety of the summer season continues. Many polo enthusiasts have retained their cottages here and have motored over to Newport for the afternoon, where they and those who stayed at the pier have been engaging in matches under auspices of the Westchester Polo Club.

Among those who followed the polo at Newry during the week were Philip S. Randolph, Miss Hannn Thurland, George Oakley Tetten, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. John W. Converse, Mr. and Mrs. John R. Fell, Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Brown, Mr. and Mrs. William Hazard, Jr., and Mrs. William Littauer, H. Leroy Whitney, Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin G. Gatins.

One of the most interesting affairs of the week here was the open air pageant and folk festival given by the organization of a trained chorus of Indian and negro singers from the Hampton, Va. Institute. Indian ceremonial dances, plantation songs and other native music were represented "Gifts to the Nation" were among the features of the entertainment held on the lawns of the Point Judith Country Club.

The patronesses were many women prominent among the summer colonies of Narragansett Pier, Newport and Watch Hill, including Mrs. Charles Hitchcock, Mrs. Irving H. Chase, Mrs. Rowland Hazard, Mrs. Otto L. Merriam, Mrs. Franklin W. Moulton, Mrs. Joseph Samuels, Mrs. Samuel H. Valentine, Mrs. J. P. Amy, Mrs. Grenville Brown, Miss E. B. Bonaparte, Mrs. F. D. Chapman, Mrs. Fisher Connor, Mrs. Saunders F. Jones, Mrs. John C. Norris, Mrs. Kenneth Murchison, Mrs. Philip M. Prescott, Mrs. Edward W. Robinson, Mrs. David S. Baker, Mrs. E. A. Benson, Mrs. J. D. Chapman, Mrs. Francis H. Dewey, Mrs. John W. Converse and Mrs. A. J. Conroy.

A popular entertainment was given in Sherry's Casino last night, it being "A Night in Montmartre."

An entertainment was given on Thursday evening in the Mathewson Hotel for the benefit of the American Society for the Blind. Corbet of New York lectured on "The Man Who Laughs."

Mrs. Frederick Hazard entertained at dinner Wednesday evening at her estate, Westmoreland Fields, prior to the regular hop at the Casino.

Mrs. and Mr. Edward L. Welsh of Philadelphia gave a large dance this evening at the Casino. The pavilion was at the Beach Club. The pavilion has just been completed and dancing takes place there every afternoon, with regular week end hops given by members of the club.

Irvine M. Chase of Boston and his wife have owned a cottage on Ocean road, and the Misses Marjorie and Eleanor Chase called last Saturday from Southampton to spend the day at the Casino. To join Mrs. Chase at Miramar next week.

MANY ENTERTAIN FOR CAPE
MAY'S HORSE SHOW

NARRAGANSETT GAY
DESPIITE END OF POLO

All Kinds of Entertainments Given by Members of the Summer Colony.

NARRAGANSETT PIER, Aug. 22.—Although the Narragansett polo team came to a close last Saturday the customary gayeties of the summer season continues. Many polo enthusiasts have retained their cottages here and have motored over to Newport for the afternoon, where the same teams that previously played at the pier have been engaging in matches under auspices of the Westchester Polo Club.

Among those who followed the polo at Newport during the week were Philip S. P. Randolph, Miss Hannah Randolph, George Olney, Mrs. R. M. and Mrs. John W. Converse, Mr. and Mrs. John R. Fell, Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Brown, Mr. and Mrs. William Hazard, Mr. and Mrs. William Littauer, H. Leroy Whitney, Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin G. Galtus.

One of the most interesting affairs of the week here was the open air pageant and folk festival given on Thursday by a trained chorus of Indian and negro songsters from Hampton, Va., including Indian ceremonial dances, plantation melodies, folk songs and a pageant representing "Gifts to the Nation" were among the features of the entertainment given on the lawns of the Point Judith Country Club.

Among the patronesses were many women prominent among the summer colonies of Narragansett Pier, Newport and the Hamlets. They were Mrs. Charles H. Hitchcock, Mrs. Irving H. Chase, Mrs. Rowland Hazard, Mrs. Otto L. Merzman, Mrs. Franklin W. Moulton, Mrs. Joseph Samuels, Mrs. Samuel H. Valentine, Mrs. J. P. Auld, Mrs. Greenville Brown, Mrs. Horita M. Rhodes, Mrs. Saunders P. Jones, Mrs. John C. Norris, Mrs. Kenneth Murchison, Mrs. Philip M. Prescott, Mrs. Edward W. Robinson, Mrs. David S. Baker, Mrs. Jerome N. Smith, Mrs. J. D. Chapman, Mrs. Fisher Corlies, Mrs. P. S. P. Connor, Mrs. Henry Brevoort Kane, Mrs. Francis H. Dewey, Mrs. John W. Converse and Mrs. A. J. Conroy.

A special entertainment was given in Sherry Casino last night, it being "A Night in Montmartre."

An entertainment was given on Thursday evening in the Mathewson Hotel for the benefit of the Baptist Church. The well known Corbet of New York lectured on "The Man Who Laughs."

Mrs. Frederick Hazard entertained at dinner Wednesday at her estate, Westmoreland Fields, prior to the regular hop at the Casino.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward L. Welsh of Philadelphia gave a large dance this evening at the new pavilion of the Scarborough Beach Club. The pavilion has just been completed and dancing takes place there every afternoon, with regular week end hops given by members of the club.

Irving M. Chase, who for many years has been one of the regulars at the Casino and the Muses Marjorie and Eleanor Chase, sailed last Saturday from Southampton and are expected to arrive to join Mrs. Chase at Miramar next week.

MANY ENTRIES FOR CHAND
MAY'S HORSE SHOW

Arrangements Completed for Next Saturday's Exhibition—Many Cups Donated.

CAPT. MAY, N. J., Aug. 22.—Judge Ben B. Lindsey of Denver was the speaker to-

NARRAGANSETT GAY
DESPIITE END OF POLO

All Kinds of Entertainments Given by Members of the Summer Colony.

NARRAGANSETT PIER, Aug. 22.—Although the Narragansett polo season came to a close last Saturday the customary gayety of the summer season continues. Many polo enthusiasts have retained their cottages there and have motored over to Newport for the afternoon, where the same teams that previously played at the pier have been engaged in matches under the auspices of the Westchester Polo Club.

Among those who followed the polo at Newport during the week were Philip S. Randolph, Mr. and Hannah Randolph, George W. Totten, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. John W. Converse, Mr. and Mrs. John R. Fell, Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Brown, Mr. and Mrs. William Hazard, Mr. and Mrs. William W. Brewster, Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin G. Gating.

One of the most interesting affairs of the week here was the open air pageant and folk festival given on Thursday by the Narragansett Club. The pageant singers from the Hampton, Va. Institute, Indian ceremonial dances, plantation melodies, folk songs and a pageant representing "Gifts to the Nation" were the features of the affair. The pageant was held on the lawns of the Point Judith Country Club.

Among the patronesses were many women prominent among the summer colonies. Narragansett Club members and Watch Hill, including Mrs. Charles Hitchcock, Mrs. Irving H. Chase, Mrs. Rowland Hazard, Mrs. Otto L. Merzman, Mrs. Franklin W. Moulton, Mrs. Joseph Samuels, Mrs. Elizabeth C. Baker, Mrs. J. P. Almy, Mrs. Granville Brown, Miss Rosita M. Rhodes, Mrs. Saunders P. Jones, Mrs. John C. Norris, Mrs. Kenneth Murchison, Mrs. Philip M. Prescott, Mrs. Edward W. Robinson, Mrs. George W. Barker, Mrs. Jerome N. Bonaparte, Mrs. J. D. Chapman, Mrs. Fisher Corlies, Mrs. P. S. P. Connor, Mrs. Henry Brevoort Kane, Mrs. Francis L. B. Smith, Mrs. John W. Converse and Mrs. A. J. Conroy.

A special entertainment was given in Sherry's Casino last night, it being "A Night in Montmartre."

An interesting affair was given on Thursday evening in the Mathewson Hotel for the benefit of the Baptist Church. Edwin Corbet of New York lectured on "The Man Who Laughs."

Mrs. Frederick W. Hazard entertained at dinner Wednesday at her estate, Westmoreland Fields, prior to the regular hop at the Casino.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward L. Welsh of Philadelphia gave a large dance this evening at the new pavilion of the Scarborough Beach Club. The pavilion has just been completed and dancing takes place there every afternoon, with regular week end hops given by the Scarborough club.

Irving M. Chase, who for many years has owned a cottage on Ocean road, and the Misses Marjorie and Eleanor Chase, will leave Saturday from Southampton and are expected to arrive to join Mrs. Chase at Miramar next week.

MAN ENTRIES FOR CAPE MAY'S HORSE SHOW

Arrangements Completed for Next Saturday's Exhibition Many Cops Donated.

CAPE MAY, N. J., Aug. 22.—Judge Ben B. Lindsey of Dorset was the speaker last night at the closing session of the Cape May Chautauqua, which has been held every afternoon and evening during the week. Judge Lindsey's subject was "The Mischances of Fate."

Arrangements are practically completed for the horse show to be held next Saturday. A large number of blooded stock

MARRAGANSETT GAY
DESPIITE END OF POLO

All Kinds of Entertainments Given by Members of the Summer Colony.

MARRAGANSETT PIER, Aug. 22.—Although the Narragansett polo season came to a close last Saturday the customary gayety of the summer season continues. Many polo enthusiasts have retained their cottages here and have motored over to Newport for the afternoon, where the prize teams that previously played at the Pier are now engaging in matches and triumphs of the Westchester Polo Club.

Among those who followed the polo at Newport during the week were Philip S. I. Rapch, Miss L. Annanah, Ralph, George Oakley Totten, Jr. and Mrs. John W. Converse, Mr. and Mrs. John R. Fell, Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Brown, Mr. and Mrs. William Hazard, Mr. and Mrs. William Totten, Leroy Whitney, Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin G. Gatins.

One of the most interesting affairs of the week here was the open air pageant and folk festival given on Thursday by the Narragansett Pier Musical Society, singers from the Hampton, Va., Institute. Indian ceremonial dances, plantation melodies, folk songs and a pageant representing the Nation were among the features of the entertainment held on the lawns of the Point Judith Country Club.

Among the patronesses were many of the summer residents of the summer colonies of Narragansett Pier, Newport and Watch Hill, including Mrs. Charles Hitchcock, Mrs. Irving H. Chase, Mrs. Rowland Hazard, Mrs. Otto L. Merzman, Mrs. Franklin M. Moulton, Mrs. Joseph Samuels, Mrs. Samuel H. Valentine, Mrs. J. P. Almy, Mrs. Granville Brown, Miss Rosita M. Rhodes, Mrs. Saunders P. Jones, Mrs. John W. Norris, Mrs. Kenneth Murchison, Mrs. Philip M. Robinson, Mrs. W. Robinson, Mrs. David S. Baker, Mrs. Jerome N. Bonaparte, Mrs. J. D. Chapman, Mrs. Henry Corlies, Mrs. S. P. Converse, Mrs. Fisher Bovee, Mrs. K. A. Francis, Mrs. D. W. French, Mrs. John W. Converse and Mrs. A. J. Conroy.

A special entertainment was given in Sherry's Casino last night, it being "A Night at Montmartre."

An entertainment was given on Thursday evening in the Mathewson Hotel for the benefit of the Baptist Church. Edwin Corbet of New York lectured on "The Man Who Laughs."

Mrs. Frederick Hazard entertained at dinner Wednesday at her estate, Westmoreland Fields, prior to the regular hop at the Casino.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward L. Welsh of Philadelphia gave a large dance this evening at the new pavilion of the Scarborough Beach Club. The pavilion has just been completed and dancing takes place there every afternoon with regular week and hope given by members of the club.

Irving M. Chase, who for many years has owned a cottage on Ocean road, and a large number of blooded stallions, sailed last Saturday from Southampton and are expected to arrive to join Mrs. Chase at Miramar next week.

MANY ENTRIES FOR CAPE
MAY'S HORSE SHOW

Arrangements Completed for Next Saturday's Exhibition—Many Cups Donated.

CAPE MAY, N. J., Aug. 22.—Judge Ben B. Lindsey of Denver was the speaker to-night at the closing session of the Cape May Chautauque, which has been held here since the opening of the summer week. Judge Lindsey's subject was "The Misfortunes of Mickey."

Arrangements are practically completed for the horse show to be held next Saturday. A large number of blooded stallions from Philadelphia, Baltimore, New York and Newport will be exhibited and a number of cups have been donated by prominent lovers of horse flesh throughout the East, from Canada and from England.

T. Coleman du Pont of New York and Wilmington, with his Tech, Jr., failed to

MARRAGANSETT GAY
DESPISTE END OF POLO

All Kinds of Entertainments Given by Members of the Summer Colony.

MARRAGANSETT PIER, Aug. 22.—Although the Narragansett polo season came to a close last Saturday the customary gaiety of the summer season continues. Many polo enthusiasts have retained their cottages here and have motored over to Newport for the afternoon, where the polo has been previously played at the Pier have been engaging in matches under auspices of the Westchester Polo Club.

Among those who followed the polo at Newport during the week were Philip P. Randolph, Mrs. Otto L. Rand, Mr. George Oakley Totten, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. John W. Converse, Mr. and Mrs. John K. Fell, Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Brown, Mr. and Mrs. William Hazard, Jr. and Mrs. William Littau, Mr. Leroy Whitney, Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin G. Gattins.

One of the most interesting affairs of the week here was the open air pageant which was given last night by the band, a trained chorus of Indian and negro singers from the Hampton, Va., Institute. Indian ceremonial dances, plantation melodies, folk songs and a pageant parade were the features of the entertainment held on the lawns of the Point Judith Country Club.

Among the patronesses were many women prominent among the summer colonies of Narragansett Pier, Newport and Watch Hill, including Mrs. Charles Hitchcock, Mrs. Irving H. Chase, Mrs. Howard Hazard, Mrs. Otto L. Rand, Mr. Franklin W. Moulton, Mr. Joseph Samuels, Mrs. Samuel H. Valentine, Mrs. J. P. Almy, Mrs. Grenville Brown, Miss Rosetta M. Rhodes, Mrs. Saunders F. Jones, Mrs. John C. Norris, Mrs. Kenneth Moulton, Mrs. Philip M. Prescott, Mrs. Edward W. Robinson, Mrs. David S. Baker, Mrs. Jerome N. Bonaparte, Mrs. J. D. Chapman, Mrs. Fisher Corlies, Mrs. P. P. Conroy, Mrs. Henry J. Conroy, Mrs. Francis H. Dewey, Mrs. John W. Converse and Mrs. A. J. Conroy.

A special entertainment was given in the Casino last night, it being "A Night in Montmartre."

An entertainment was given on Thursday evening in the Mathewson Hotel for the benefit of the Baptist Church. Edwin Conroy, of New York, lectured on "The Man Who Laughs."

Mrs. Frederick Hazard entertained at dinner Wednesday at her estate, Westmoreland Fields, prior to the regular hop at the Casino.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward L. Welsh of Philadelphia gave a large dance this evening at the new pavilion of the Scarborough Beach Club, on the Cavalier, just recently completed and dancing takes place here every afternoon, with regular week end hops given by members of the club.

Irving M. Chase, who for many years has had a cottage on Ocean road, and the Misses Marjorie and Eleanor Chase, sailed last Saturday from Southampton and are expected to arrive to join Mrs. Chase at Miramar next week.

MANY ENTRIES FOR CAPE
MAY'S HORSE SHOW

Arrangements Completed for Next Saturday's Exhibition—Many Cops Donated.

CAPE MAY, N. J., Aug. 22.—Judge Ben B. Lindsey of Denver was the speaker to-day at the closing exercises of the Cape May Chautauqua. Speech has been held every afternoon and evening during the week. Judge Lindsey's subject was "The Misfortunes of Mickey."

The exercises are practically completed for the horse show to be held next Saturday. A large number of blooded stock from Philadelphia, Baltimore, New York and Newport will be exhibited and a number of cup winners will also be present. The prominent lovers of horse flesh throughout the East, from Canada and England.

T. Coleman du Pont of New York and Wilmington, who with Tech, Jr. failed to win the hydroplane races in the eighteen mile course last Saturday afternoon by forty-three hundredths of a second, Col. du Pont has his steam yacht Tech, Jr. in the harbor at Cape May and has been holding in the events of the Corinthian Yacht Club.

Eleven persons of the Corinthian

SOUTHAMPTON BUSY DINING AND DANCING

SOUTHAMPTON BUSY DINING AND DANCING

SOUTHAMPTON BUSY DINING AND DANCING

SOUTHAMPTON BUSY DINING AND DANCING

Annual Tennis Tournament
Causes Much Entertaining—
Costume Ball Big Success.

SOUTHAMPTON, N. Y., Aug. 22.—An unusual amount of gaiety in the form of dances and dinner parties has occupied the members of the cottage colony during

SOUTHAMPTON BUSY DINING AND DANCING

Annual Tennis Tournament Causes Much Entertaining— Costume Ball Big Success.

SOUTHAMPTON, N. Y., Aug. 22.—An unusual amount of gaiety in the form of dances and dinner parties has occupied the members of the cottage colony during the past week. The reason for all these functions is the annual invitation tennis tournament held at the Meadow Club. The playing began on Monday afternoon with seventy-four entries, and ended with the finals this morning. The weather during the week was favorable for the players and the crowds of visitors who

SOUTHAMPTON BUSY DINING AND DANCING

Annual Tennis Tournament Causes Much Entertaining— Costume Ball Big Success.

SOUTHAMPTON, N. Y., Aug. 22.—An unusual amount of gaiety in the form of dances and dinner parties has occupied the members of the cottage colony during the past week. The reason for all these functions is the annual invitation tennis tournament held at the Meadow Club. The playing began on Monday afternoon with seventy-four entries, and ended with the finals this morning. The weather during the week was favorable for the players and the crowds of visitors who were here. Nearly every one in the cottage colony is entertaining and the clubs and hotels have been taxed to their capacity.

The Meadow Club has been the scene of unusual activity this week, for besides the tennis, the ladies of the hospital auxiliaries were busy preparing for the annual costume ball for the benefit of the Southampton Hospital given on Thursday night, which proved to be one of the largest and most successful affairs of the season. Dancing was in a huge marquee erected on the tennis courts to the rear of the clubhouse and adjoining the gardens. The marquee was

SOUTHAMPTON BUSY DINING AND DANCING

Annual Tennis Tournament Causes Much Entertaining— Costume Ball Big Success.

SOUTHAMPTON, N. Y., Aug. 22.—An unusual amount of gaiety in the form of dances and dinner parties has occupied the members of the cottage colony during the past week. The reason for all these functions is the annual invitation tennis tournament held at the Meadow Club. The playing began on Monday afternoon with seventy-four entries, and ended with the finals this morning. The weather during the week was favorable for the players and the crowds of visitors who were here. Nearly every one in the cottage colony is entertaining and the clubs and hotels have been taxed to their capacity.

The Meadow Club has been the scene of unusual activity this week, for besides the tennis, the ladies of the hospital auxiliary were busy preparing for the annual costume ball for the benefit of the Southampton Hospital given on Thursday night, which proved to be one of the largest and most successful affairs of the season. Dancing was in a huge marquee erected on the tennis courts to the rear of the clubhouse and adjoining the gardens. The marquee was connected with the clubhouse by a covered passageway. Many beautiful and costly costumes were worn and there was a fashionable audience in the boxes. The ball was opened by a Pierrot and Pierrette dance arranged by Miss Juliana Cutting. A substantial sum of money was raised for the hospital fund.

On Tuesday afternoon, while the tennis playing was in progress, a tea dance was given in the ballroom of the club. Exhibitions of the Art and the Art of the Art were given and Basil Durant was one of the

SOUTHAMPTON BUSY

DANCING AND DANCING

Annual Tennis Tournament Causes Much Entertaining— Costume Ball Big Success.

SOUTHAMPTON, N. Y., Aug. 22.—An unusual amount of gaiety in the form of dances and dinner parties has occupied the members of the cottage colony during the past week. The reason for all these functions is the annual invitation tennis tournament held at the Meadow Club. The playing began on Monday afternoon with seventy-four entries, and ended with the finals this morning. The weather during the week was favorable for the players and the crowds of visitors who were here. Nearly every one in the cottage colony is entertaining and the clubs and hotels have been taxed to their capacity.

The Meadow Club has been the scene of unusual activity this week, for besides the tennis, the ladies of the hospital auxiliary were busy preparing for the annual costume ball for the benefit of the Southampton Hospital given on Thursday night, which proved to be one of the largest and most successful affairs of the season. Dancing was in a huge marquee erected on the tennis courts to the rear of the clubhouse and adjoining the garden. The marquee was connected with the clubhouse by a covered passageway. Many beautiful and costly costumes were worn and there was a fashionable audience in the boxes. The ball was opened by a Pierrot and Pierrette dance arranged by Miss Juliana Cutting. A substantial sum of money was raised for the hospital fund.

On Tuesday afternoon, while the tennis playing was in progress, a tea dance was given in the ballroom of the club. Exhibition dancing by Miss Margaret Hawesworth and Basil Durant was one of the features. There was also competitive dancing among the members of the Junior set for silver cups offered by Mrs. William Love Rice and Mrs. Henry G. Trevor.

Several juvenile parties were also given during the week, among the largest of which was the one given by Dr. and Mrs. P. F. Chambers on Monday night for their daughter, Miss Alice Chambers. A novelty of the evening's entertainment was the moving pictures given on the lawn. On Tuesday night Hudson Budd gave a

SOUTHAMPTON BUSY

Annual Tennis Tournament— Causes Much Entertaining— Costume Ball Big Success.

SOUTHAMPTON, N. Y., Aug. 22.—An unusual amount of gaiety in the form of dances and dinner parties has occupied the members of the cottage colony during the past week. The reason for all these functions is the annual invitation tennis tournament held at the Meadow Club. The playing began on Monday afternoon with seventy-four entries, and ended with the finals this morning. The weather during the week was favorable for the players and the crowds of visitors who were here. Nearly every one in the cottage colony is entertaining and the clubs and hotels have been taxed to their capacity.

The Meadow Club has been the scene of unusual activity this week, for besides the tennis, the ladies of the hospital auxiliary were busy preparing for the annual costume ball for the benefit of the Southampton Hospital given on Thursday night. It proved to be one of the most and most successful affairs of the season. Dancing was in a huge marquee erected on the tennis courts to the rear of the clubhouse and adjoining the gardens. The marquee was connected with the clubhouse by a passageway. Many beautiful and costly costumes were worn and there was a fashionable audience in the boxes. The ball was opened by a Fleror and Russian dance arranged by Miss Juliana Cutting. A substantial sum of money was raised for the hospital fund.

On Tuesday afternoon, while the tennis playing was in progress, a tea dance was given in the ballroom of the club. Exhibition dancing by Miss Margaret Hawkesworth and Basil Durant was one of the features. There was also competitive dancing among the members of the club set for silver cups offered by Mrs. William Lowe Rice and Mrs. Henry G. Trevor.

Several juvenile parties were also given during the week, among the largest of which was the one given by Dr. and Mrs. P. F. Chambers on Monday night for their daughter, Miss Alice Chambers. A novelty of the evening's entertainment was the moving pictures given on the lawn. On Tuesday night Hudson Budd gave a dance to about forty of the young folks at the cottage of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Budd on South Main street. On Friday night Mrs. Henry H. Rogers entertained at Hopland, her summer cottage. More than 100 enjoyed a very elaborate entertainment arranged by Mrs. Rogers in the production of the film play "Cabrila." The play was accompanied with a large

SOUTHAMPTON BUSY DINING AND DANCING

Annual Tennis Tournament Causes Much Entertaining— Costume Ball Big Success.

SOUTHAMPTON, N. Y., Aug. 22.—An unusual amount of gaiety in the form of dances and dinner parties has occupied the members of the cottage colony during the past week. The reason for all these functions is the annual invitation tennis tournament held at the Meadow Club. The playing began on Monday afternoon with seventy-four entries, and ended with the finals this morning. The weather during the week was favorable for the players and the crowds of visitors who were here. Nearly every one in the cottage colony is entertaining and the clubs and hotels have been taxed to their capacity.

The Meadow Club has been the scene of unusual activity this week, for besides the tennis, the ladies of the hospital auxiliary were busy preparing for the annual costume ball for the benefit of the Southampton Hospital given on Thursday night, which proved to be one of the largest and most successful affairs of the season. Dancing was in a huge marquee erected on the tennis court to the rear of the clubhouse and adjoining the gardens. The marquee was connected with the clubhouse by a covered passageway. Many beautiful and costly costumes were worn and there was a fashionable audience in the boxes. The ball was opened by a Pierrot and Pierresette dance arranged by Miss Juliana Cutting. A substantial sum of money was raised for the hospital fund.

On Tuesday afternoon, while the tennis playing was in progress, a tea dance was given in the ballroom of the club. Exhibition dancing by Miss Margaret Hawkeworth and Basil Durant was one of the features. There was also competitive dancing among the members of the junior set for silver cups offered by Mrs. William Lowe Rice and Mrs. Henry G. Trevor.

Several juvenile parties were also given during the week, among the largest of which was the one given by Dr. and Mrs. P. F. Chambers on Monday night for their daughter, Miss Alice Chambers. A novelty of the evening's entertainment was the moving pictures given on the lawn. On Tuesday night Hudson Budd gave a dance to about forty of the young folks of the cottage of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Budd on South Main street. On Friday night Mrs. Henry H. Rogers entertained at Hopeland, her summer cottage. More than 100 enjoyed a very elaborate entertainment arranged by Mrs. Rogers in the production of the film play "Cabrila." The play was accompanied with a large orchestra and chorus, and after the entertainment there was dancing, which was followed by a supper.

SHELTER ISLAND.

SHELTER ISLAND, N. Y., Aug. 22.—The social pendulum swings merrily at this

SOUTHAMPTON BUSY

DINING AND DANCING

Annual Tennis Tournament Causes Much Entertaining— Costume Ball Big Success.

SOUTHAMPTON, N. Y., Aug. 22.—An unusual amount of gaiety in the form of dances and dinner parties has occupied the members of the cottage colony during the past week. The reason for all these functions is the annual invitation tennis tournament held at the Meadow Club. The playing began on Monday afternoon with seventy-four entries, and ended with the finale this morning. The weather during the week was favorable for the players and the crowd of visitors who were here. Nearly every one in the cottage colony is entertaining and the clubs and hotels have been taxed to their capacity.

The Meadow Club has been the scene of unusual activity this week, for besides the tennis, the ladies of the hospital auxiliary were busy preparing for the annual costume ball for the benefit of the Southampton Hospital given on Thursday night, which proved to be one of the largest and most successful affairs of the season. Dancing was in full swing in the evening in the tennis courts to the rear of the clubhouse and adjoining the gardens. The marquee was connected with the clubhouse by a covered passageway. Many beautiful and costly costumes were worn and there was a fashionable audience in the boxes. The ball was opened by a Pierrot and Pierrette dance arranged by Miss Juliana Cutting.

A substantial sum of money was raised for the hospital fund.

On Tuesday afternoon, while the tennis playing was in progress, a tea dance was given in the ballroom of the club. Exhibition dancing by Miss Margaret Hawkesworth and Basil Durant was one of the features. There was also competitive dancing among the members of the Junior set for silver cups offered by Mrs. William Lowe Rice and Mrs. Henry G. Trevor.

Several juvenile parties were also given during the week. Among the largest of which was the one given by Dr. and Mrs. P. F. Chambers on Monday night for their daughter, Miss Alice Chambers. A novelty of the evening's entertainment was the moving pictures given on the lawn.

On Tuesday night Huxton Budd gave a dance to about forty of the young folks at the cottage of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Budd on South Main street. On Friday night Mrs. Henry H. Rogers entertained at Hopland, her summer cottage. More than 100 enjoyed a very elaborate entertainment arranged by Mrs. Rogers in the production of the film play "Cabrila." The play was accompanied with a large orchestra and chorus and as the entertainment there was dancing, which was followed by a supper.

SHELTER ISLAND.

SHELTER ISLAND, N. Y., Aug. 22.—The social pendulum swings merrily at this resort and the season gives promise of ending in a burst of brilliancy.

The children still hold the centre of the social scene. Yesterday afternoon they held their carnival and games in the ballroom of the Prospect House, the principal feature of which was a modern dancing contest for prizes donated by James Ebbett.

SOUTHAMPTON ON BUSY

DORNING AND DANCING

Annual Tennis Tournament Causes Much Entertainment— Costume Ball Big Success.

SOUTHAMPTON, N. Y., Aug. 22.—An unusual amount of gaiety in the form of dances and dinner parties has occupied the members of the cottage colony during the week. The reason for all these functions is the annual invitation tennis tournament held at the Meadow Club. The playing began on Monday afternoon with seventy-four entries, and ended with the finals this morning. The weather during the week was favorable for the players and the crowds of visitors who were here. Nearly every one in the cottage colony is entertaining and the clubs and hotels have been taxed to their capacity.

The Meadow Club has been the scene of unusual activity this week, for besides the tennis, the ladies of the hospital auxiliary were busy preparing for the annual costume ball for the benefit of the Southampton Hospital given on Thursday night, which proved to be one of the largest and most successful affairs of the season. Dancing was held in a huge marquee erected on the tennis courts to the rear of the clubhouse and adjoining the gardens. The marquee was connected with the clubhouse by a covered passageway. Many beautiful and costly costumes were worn and there was a fashionable audience in the boxes. The ball was opened by a Pierrot and Pierrette dance arranged by Miss Juliana Cutting. A substantial sum of money was raised for the hospital fund.

On Tuesday afternoon, while the tennis playing was in progress, a tea dance was given in the ballroom of the club. Exhibition dancing by Miss Margaret Hawkesworth and Eddi Durant was one of the features. There was also competitive dancing among the members of the Junior set for silver cups offered by Mrs. William Lowe Rice and Mrs. Henry G. Trevor. Several juvenile parties were also given during the week, among the largest of which was the one given by Dr. and Mrs. P. F. Chambers on Monday night for their daughter, Miss Alice Chambers. A novelty of the evening's entertainment was the moving pictures given on the lawn. On Tuesday night Hudson Budd gave a dance to about forty of the young folks at the cottage of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Burth and South Hampton was again a night Mrs. Henry H. Rogers entertained at Hopeland, her summer cottage. More than 100 enjoyed a very elaborate entertainment arranged by Mrs. Rogers in the presence of which was the film play "Cabin of the Queen."

The play was accompanied with a large orchestra and chorus, and after the entertainment there was dancing, which was followed by a supper.

SHELTER ISLAND.

SHELTER ISLAND, N. Y., Aug. 22.—The social pendulum swings merrily at this resort and the season gives promise of being one of the busiest of the year.

The children still hold the centre of the stage. Yesterday afternoon they held their carnival and games in the ballroom of the Prospect House, the principal feature of which was the film play "Cabin of the Queen." The contest for prizes donated by James Eben, the manager, Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Hutchinson of New York and Mr. Sage of Brooklyn acted as judges.

One of the big features of the past week was the benefit concert for Union Chapel held in the ballroom of the Prospect House under the direction of Thomas G. Austin. An exceptionally good program was given and the proceeds were

SOUTHAMPTON BUSY DINING AND DANCING

Annual Tennis Tournament Causes Much Entertaining— Costume Ball Big Success.

SOUTHAMPTON, N. Y., Aug. 22.—An unusual amount of gaiety in the form of unusual and of dinner parties has occupied the members of the cottage colony during the past week. The reason for all these functions is the annual invitation tennis tournament held at the Meadow Club. The playing began on Monday afternoon with seventy-four entries, and ended with the finals this morning. The weather during the week was favorable for the players and the crowds of visitors who were here. Nearly every one in the cottage colony is entertaining and the clubs and hotels have been taxed to their capacity.

The Meadow Club has been the scene of unusual activity this week, for besides the tennis, the ladies of the hospital auxiliary were busy preparing for the annual costume ball for the benefit of the Southampton Hospital given on Thursday night, which proved to be one of the largest and most successful affairs of the season. Dancing was under a huge marquee erected on the tennis courts to the rear of the clubhouse and adjoining the gardens. The marquee was connected with the clubhouse by a covered passageway. Many beautiful and costly costumes were worn and there was a fashionable audience in the boxes. The ball was opened by a Pierrot and Pierrette danced arranged by Miss Juliana Cutting. A substantial sum of money was raised for the hospital fund.

On Tuesday afternoon, while the tennis playing was in progress, a dance was given in the ballroom of the club. Exhibitions of many beautiful and costly costumes were worn and there was a fashionable audience in the boxes. The ball was opened by a Pierrot and Pierrette danced arranged by Miss Juliana Cutting. A substantial sum of money was raised for the hospital fund.

On Tuesday afternoon, while the tennis playing was in progress, a dance was given in the ballroom of the club. Exhibitions of many beautiful and costly costumes were worn and there was a fashionable audience in the boxes. The ball was opened by a Pierrot and Pierrette danced arranged by Miss Juliana Cutting. A substantial sum of money was raised for the hospital fund.

Several juvenile parties were also given during the week, among the largest of which was the one given by Dr. and Mrs. P. F. Chambers on Monday night for their daughter, Miss Alice Chambers. A novelty of the evening's entertainment was the moving pictures given on the lawn. On Tuesday night Hudson Budd gave a dance to about forty of the young folks who were the cottage of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Budd on South Main street. On Friday night Mrs. Henry H. Rogers entertained at Hopeland, her summer cottage. More than 100 enjoyed a very elaborate entertainment arranged by Mrs. Rogers in the production of the film play "Cabrila." The play was accompanied with a larger orchestra and chorus, and after the entertainment there was dancing, which was followed by a supper.

SHELTER ISLAND.

SHELTER ISLAND, N. Y., Aug. 22.—The social pendulum swings merrily at this resort and the season gives promise of ending in a burst of brilliancy.

The children still hold the centre of the stage. Yesterday afternoon they held their carnival and games in the ballroom of the Prospect House. The principal feature of which was a famous diamond contest for prizes donated by James Hutchison the manager. Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Hutchinson of New York and Mr. Sage of Brooklyn acted as judges.

One of the big features of the past week was the benefit concert for Union Chapel held in the ballroom of the Prospect House under the leadership of the Rev. J. Austin. An exceptionally good programme was provided by the resorters.

Recent arrivals at the Prospect House are:

From New York—Henry Pasteman, J. B. Duane, Miss S. C. Case, Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Macy, J. L. Williams, Mr. and Mrs. R. N. Porter, T. C. Sullivan and Miss Claire Herrick.

From New England—Mr. Fletcher, Dr.

can believe the wild tales of cancellations and cessation of social gayeties and the general condition of the market. Many brokers who would have been in New York have returned for their holidays in the hills, and there has never been a gayier season than this. The season has been a very successful one, the safety of friends abroad, and this has been the busiest week of the season, to be followed by an equally busy month.

Events on the East Side this week include tennis and golf tournament at the Kearsarge, North Conway, where a large ball was given for the benefit of the students of Wellesley College; mountain climbing, particularly at Mt. Washington, and a series of social parties and drag parties at the Intervale House, the Tennis Ball at the Iron Mountain House in Jackson, and golf and tennis at the Gray Hall, Gray's Inn and the Fox Mountain.

The cabaret at the Maplewood Casino on Wednesday evening for the benefit of the Littleton Hospital employees' fund at the Littleton Hospital was a very successful one. The important events and many boxes were sold to members of the hotel and cottage colony. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. J. M. McLaughlin, Mr. Albany, Dr. and Mrs. F. S. Bailey of New York, Mr. and Mrs. James Boyd, Mr. and Mrs. H. N. Meeker, Mrs. Garrett C. Reilly, Mr. and Mrs. Merrill C. Gates of Washington, D. C., Emily C. Fink, Mr. Wayne, Pa., and Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Fink.

There has been much entertaining in a most informal way at the New Profile Hotel, which has been the center of the colony, always invites the members of the cottage colony in for tea at the twilight hour on Sunday, and of the several bridge parties and other gatherings of the Misses Edwards and Mrs. George McLaughlin at McHarg cottage were notable.

can believe the wild tales of cancellations and cessation of social gayeties and the general condition of the market. Many brokers who would have been in New York have returned for their holidays in the hills, and there has never been a gayier season than this. The season has been a very successful one, the safety of friends abroad, and this has been the busiest week of the season, to be followed by an equally busy month.

Events on the East Side this week include tennis and golf tournament at the Kearsarge, North Conway, where a large ball was given for the benefit of the students of Wellesley College; mountain climbing parties at Mt. Mansfield; and drag parties at the Intervale House, the Tennis Ball at the Iron Mountain House in Jackson, and golf and tennis at the Gray Hall, Gray's Inn and the F. W. Mountaintop.

The cabaret at the Maplewood Casino on Wednesday evening for the benefit of the Littleton Hospital employees' fund at the Littleton Hospital was one of the season's important events and many boxes were sold to members of the hotel and cottage colony. Among those present were Mrs. J. W. F. Fink, Mrs. J. W. Albany, Dr. and Mrs. F. S. Bailey of New York, Mr. and Mrs. James Boyd, Mr. and Mrs. H. N. Meeker, Mrs. Garrett C. Reilly, Mr. and Mrs. Merrill C. Gates of Washington, D. C., Emily C. Fink, Wayne, Pa., and Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Fink.

There has been much entertaining in a most informal way at the New Profile Hotel, which has been the center of the colony, always invites the members of the cottage colony in for tea at the twilight hour on Sunday, and of the several bridge parties at the cottage colony, one of the Misses Edwards and Mr. George C. Noble at the McHarg cottage were notable.

can believe the wild tales of cancellations and cessation of social gayeties dictated by the war and condition of the market. Many a social season has already been in New York have returned for their holidays in the hills, and there has never been a gayier season than this, now that most visitors are assured of the safety of friends abroad, and this is the most gay and easiest week of the season, to be followed by an equally busy month.

Events on the East Side this week include tennis and golf tournament at the Kearsarge, North Conway, where a ball was given for the benefit of the building fund, and a series of mountain climbing parties, moonlight picnics and drag parties at the Intervale House, the Tennis Ball at the Iron Mountain House in Jackson, and golf and tennis at Wentworth Hall, Gray's Inn and the River.

The Crawford's list includes clock golf and putting matches, a golf tournament, and several auction parties and concerts. Bretton Woods has several concerts, baseball games, a formal ball at the Mount Mansfield Hotel, a swimming, a gymkhana on the athletic field, a Friday dancing contests and golf tournament at Mount Pleasant, the annual masquerade at Fabyans, a tennis and golf tournament and masquerade at the Twin Mountain House, a masquerade ball at Waumbek, a tennis and moonlight picnics galore, a ball, putting match clock golf and golf tournaments and two

The cabaret at the Maplewood Casino on Wednesday evening for the benefit of the Maplewood employees' fund at the Hotel is one of the season's important events. Many of the seats were sold to members of the hotel and cottage colony. Among those present were Judge and Mrs. Clifford Gregory of Albany, Dr. and Mrs. F. S. Bailey of New York, Mr. Merritt, Mr. and Mrs. H. N. Meeker, Mr. Garrett C. Gates of the Rev. and Mrs. Merrill C. Gates of Washington, Miss Emily Mezger of Wayne, Pa., and Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Pink. It has been much entertaining in the most informal manner possible during this week. Mrs. Arthur Butler Twombly always invites the members of the cottage colony in for tea at the twilight hour on Sunday, and of the several bridge parties, the most interesting was given by Mrs. Edwards and Mrs. George Gamble at the McHarg cottage were notable.

The governors' cup, as the magnificent trophy presented to the Profile Golf Club by the late Mr. Draper is always called, will be contested for the prize of this season, and will be played for during this month. Of the Profile club members, three have won the trophy twice in succession and as all three members are expected to return to join in a contest for the third time, permanent holding of the trophy, much interest in this tournament is being shown. The contestants are John Kendrick Bangs, Jr., John Cornelius and Harold C. Tappin, all of New York. The tennis tournament at the Profile will probably can believe the wild tales of cancellations and cessation of social gayeties which have been the condition of the market. Many brokers and bankers have been in New York have returned for their holidays in the hills, and there has never been a gayer season than this, now that most visitors are assured of a safe and comfortable road, and this has been the busiest week of the season, to be followed by an equally busy month.

Events on the East Side this week include tennis and golf tournament at the Mount Washington Hotel, where a large ball was given for the benefit of the building fund of Wellesley College; mountain climbing parties, moonlight picnics and drag parties at the Intervale House; the Tennis Ball at the Iron Mountain House in Jackson; a tennis tournament at Wentworth Hall, Gray's Inn and the Crawford's Mountain House.

The Crawford's list includes clock golf and putting matches, a golf tournament, a tennis tournament, a croquet match. Bretton Woods has several croquet balls, a formal ball at the Mount Washington Saturday evening, a symphony on the athletic field on Friday, drag parties and golf tournaments at Mount Crawford, a croquet match at Fabyans, a tennis and golf tournament and masquerade at the Twin Mountain House, a masquerade ball at the Waumbec, with dinners and moonlight parties at the Waumbec, croquet and bridge parties at the Mountain View House, then dances at The Uplands, open golf tournament at Maplewood, where a masquerade and ball at the Casino, a croquet match at The Uplands, a croquet match at the Sinclair on Saturday evening, golf tournament and many teas and picnics at the New Profile House, tennis tournament and lawn bowls at Dixville Notch, a croquet match at the Uplands given; cottillon at the Sunset Hill House and many other events of lesser importance, including entertaining among the various cottage houses.

The parties and cotillions on gala days will be the most pretentious one ever at

The cabaret at the Maplewood Casino on Wednesday evening for the benefit of the Maplewood employees' fund at the little's Home, and the cotillions at the cottage's important events and many boxes were sold to members of the hotel and cottage colony. Among those present were Judge and Mrs. Clifford Gregory of New York, Mr. and Mrs. S. Kelley of New York, Mr. and Mrs. James Bayard of New York, Mrs. H. N. Meeker, Mrs. Garrett C. Reilly, the Rev. and Mrs. Merrill C. Gates of Washington, Miss Emily Mearns of New York, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Pink.

There has been much entertaining in the most informal way at the New Profile this week. Mrs. Arthur Butler Twombly always invites the members of the cottage colony to the cottage for the night hour on Sunday, and of the several balls given in the cottages those of the Misses Edwards and Mrs. George Venable at the McHarg cottage were notable.

The governing body, the Golf Club, trophy presented to the Golf Club by the late Mr. Draper is always called, will be the most important prize of the season, and will be played for some time. Three have won the Profile club members, and three have won the Profile in succession and as all three members expected here to join in a contest for the third leg, which means permanent hold on the golf interest in this year's tournament is being held by the constants are John Kendrick Bacon, Jr., John Kendrick and Harold C. Tappin, all of New York. The annual tennis tournament at the Profile will probably take place next week.

The cotillions at the Waumbec on Friday evening was one of the fairest of the season. Miss Ruth Cranford was in charge and fifty couples were in costume. The prizes were awarded to Mrs. Franklin D. Oakes, Mrs. S. Kelley, Mrs. Marjorie Cleveland, colored chaperone, Miss Renwick Dimond, colored chaperone, Mrs. Cleveland and J. W. Benning, Jr., farmers. The noted were Mrs. Arnold Dimond, Misses de Zalzo and Miss Little Maids From School; W. F. Munroe and W. Browning, clowns; J. M. Bacon and Mrs. Bacon, negro mammy.

New York.

[illegible][illegible][illegible][illegible][illegible][illegible]